

Title:

Corrected Random Walk Approximations to Free Boundary Problems in Optimal Stopping

Author(s):

Tze Leung Lai, Yi-Ching Yao, and Farid Aitsahlia

Technical Report number (Dept. of Statistics, Stanford Univ.):

2005-17

Date:

July 2005

Abstract:

Corrected random walk approximations to continuous-time optimal stopping boundaries for Brownian motion, first introduced by Chernoff and Petkau, have provided powerful computational tools in option pricing and sequential analysis. This paper develops the theory of these second-order approximations and describes some new applications.